Acer circinatum

Vine maple

Slow growing multi-stemmed deciduous tree/large shrub grows up to 25’ tall and 10’ wide.
Winter deciduous.
Showy purple seed heads during the spring.
Cold hardy to 35˚ F.
Tolerates poor soil conditions as long as it has good drainage.
Beautiful fall coloring.
Requires moderate water to regular water.
Good for erosion control near streams.
Takes full shade to part sun.
Does fine in container gardening.
Takes pruning.

Full shade to part sun
Drought tolerant once established
Attracts birds
Attracts butterflies