Calandrinia ciliata

Red maids

Annual herb that varies in size from a few centimeters wide to an erect form that can be up to 16” tall. Showy deep pink to red flowers in spring. Grows best in sandy or loamy soil. Drought tolerant once established.

- Full sun
- Drought tolerant
- Attracts butterflies