Eriogonum grande rubescens

Red buckwheat

Moderately fast growing perennial to 18” tall and 3’ wide. Evergreen. Pink to red flowers during the spring and fall. Cold hardy to 20˚ F. Water requirements vary depending on soil conditions and area planted. Food source for many birds. Tolerates clay and alkalinity. Good for slopes. Possibly deer resistant.

Filtered sun or afternoon shade
Water weekly once established
Attracts butterflies
Attracts hummingbirds
Attracts birds