Salvia clevelandii
‘Aromas’

Aromas Cleveland Sage

Moderately fast growing mounding shrub to 5’ high and 5’ wide.
Semi-evergreen.
Takes full to part sun.
Best in well draining soil.
Drought tolerant once established.
If you over water it the foliage may turn more green than silver.
Showy purple flowers grow in whorls on woody stems in late spring - early summer.
Flowers and foliage are very fragrant.
Deer resistant.

Full to part sun
Drought tolerant
Attracts hummingbirds
Attracts birds
Attracts butterflies