Cercis occidentalis

Western redbud

General:
A deciduous, multi-stemmed, small tree, 10-18 ft. in height and spread. A magnificent show of magenta flowers for a month in early spring; in summer blue-green ovate leaves and rose/purple, persistant seed pods. In early fall the leaves turn yellow,

- full sun
- tolerates no water once established
- some summer water produces more lush foliage