Epilobium californica
(Zauschneria californica)

California fuchsia

Deciduous.
Spreads by underground rhizomes. Tolerates poor soil and seasonal flooding.
Prune by mowing once a year and it will stay 3-6 in high and spread to 6 ft across.
Flower color ranges fuchsia to pink to red-orange.
Regular water until established.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Water Needs</th>
<th>Light Requirements</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Little to no water once established</td>
<td>Full sun to part shade</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Attracts hummingbirds
Attracts butterflies