Festuca idahoensis
‘Siskiyou blue’

Blue Idaho fescue

Deciduous, dormant in summer. 1 ft tall and 1-2 ft wide. Prune by mowing after it flowers, but mow high so as not to destroy the tufts of leaves. Drought tolerant once established. Best in well draining soil.

- Full sun
- No water needed once established
- Attracts butterflies
- Attracts birds

Attracts butterflies
Attracts birds