Paxistima myrsinites
Oregon boxwood

Low growing shrub to 2’ high and up to 3’ wide.
Evergreen shrub with shiny leaves.
Insignificant reddish brown flowers in late Spring - early Summer.
Takes filtered sun to afternoon shade.
Good plant for wildlife gardens.
Best in well-draining soil.
Best in dry, shady areas.
Yellow flowers in Spring/Summer.
Tolerates sand and seasonal flooding.
Water deeply once weekly after established.

Afternoon shade to filtered sun
Regular water
Attracts birds