Pseudotsuga menziesii

Douglas fir

General:
Magnificent tree native to California and Western North America. Fast growing 80-100’ tall. Single, needles in flat sprays, on flexible branches, fragrant when crushed. Tolerates wind, grows in all soils except boggy ones. Resistant to oak root fungus.

- full sun or partial shade
- regular water