Quercus kelloggii

California black oak

General:
Deciduous tree native to mountains throughout California. Moderate growth rate 30-60’. Dark furrowed bark. Handsome, deeply lobed foliage. In spring unfolding leaves are pink to dusty rose, becoming bright in summer and turning a rich yellow in fall.

Full sun to partial shade

Needs no water once established; for best performance give occasional deep water for the first 3 years.