Umbellularia californica

California bay (Bay laurel)

Evergreen. Slow growing large shrub to small tree. Fragrant leaves used in cooking, but very strong flavor so use cautiously. Tolerates clay, sand, rocky soil, short periods of drought and seasonal flooding. Good as formal hedge or screen. Protect young plants from deer.

Full sun to shade
Water monthly during summer once established
Attracts birds